Article 1 In accordance with Article 33 of the University Act and Article 51 of Ming Chuan University Organizational Code, these provisions were established to foster student autonomy, to improve students' learning effectiveness and to cultivate leadership skills and strengthen democratic spirit.

Article 2 Student government groups stated in these provisions include the Student Associations, the Student Council, the Student Appeal and Review Committee, the Graduating Class Activities Committee and the department student associations, as well as other student self-government groups established in accordance with democratic spirit.
Student clubs stated in these provisions include clubs established to hold academic, service, arts, fun and leisure, social, sports and comprehensive activities.

Article 3 The establishment and operation of student government groups and student clubs at Ming Chuan University are a part of holistic education. Every group member must follow university rules and relevant regulations, establish their organizational charter through democratic procedures and submit said to the University for approval before founding the group and accept the guidance of the Student Affairs Division.

Article 4 The organizational charters of the Student Associations, Student Council, Student Appeal and Review Committee, and Graduating Class Activities Committee are to be established separately.

The organizational charters of School, department (program) student associations and student clubs are to be passed at the association/club general meeting and are effective after being approved by Student Activity Counseling Committee. The Student Activity Counseling Committee Organizational Charter is to be established separately.

Article 5 The responsible person of the student government association and club shall be publicly-elected; periodical re-election will be conducted every year. The procedures are to be established separately.

Article 6 Student government groups and clubs can collect group membership fees. It is not permitted to solicit funding from off-campus sources. Yet, with the approval of the advising unit, a fundraising campaign among its member or their affiliates or acceptance of donations from its members, affiliates or from outside is not limited by this restriction.

Funds of the groups shall be released to its members every semester, and be regularly supervised and reviewed by the Student Council and advising unit. Operations and auditing of the subsidies provided by the advising unit shall comply with the university's accounting regulations and relevant regulations. The relevant procedures are to be established separately.

Article 7 Applications for establishment, activities, publications, evaluations, venue and equipment lending, budget and posting of posters can be implemented after approval has been granted by the University. The procedures are to be established separately.

Article 8 When holding activities, student government associations and clubs shall pay attention to the rights and recognition of the majority of the students.

Article 9 Student government groups' and clubs' applications for participating in off-campus activities should first receive the Extracurricular Activities Section's approval. Activities can proceed only after approval has been granted by the university.

Article 10 Student government groups and clubs are to elect representatives to attend University Affairs Committee Meeting and regulation meetings regarding academic work, life counseling and student merit and demerit procedures.

Article 11 Group presidents and officers shall attend workshops for club leaders, and Student Government Associations & Club Officers' Meetings.

Article 12 Student government groups which organize (participate in) university-wide events, win awards in competitions or have outstanding performance may be recognized with merits by Student Affairs Division based on the actual situation. The procedures for rewarding club activities are to be established separately.

Article 13 Upon being passed by Student Council, the Student Affairs Committee Meeting and approved by the president, these procedures were announced and implemented.
